1. The Seller’s solicitors are Moss Solicitors LLP, 80-81 Woodgate, Loughborough LE11 2XE. Telephone No. 01509 217770. Reference: JJ/968189327
2. These special conditions incorporate the Common Auction Conditions of Sale (Fourth Edition) (“the Conditions”). Where there is a conflict between those Conditions and these special conditions, the special conditions will always prevail. Terms used or defined in these special conditions have the same meaning when used in the Conditions.
3. The title to the Property is freehold and is registered at HM Land Registry under title number WA135908.
4. The Buyer acknowledges that the Buyer buys the Property with full knowledge of the state and condition of the Property (whether or not the Buyer has inspected the Property or caused it to be inspected on the Buyer’s behalf). The Property is sold as seen.
5. The Seller or its solicitor are not obliged to provide any replies to enquiries, requisitions or objections raised by the Buyer or the Buyer’s solicitor.
6. The Property is sold in its actual condition and state of repair.
7. The Property is sold with vacant possession. However, if the Property is squatted or unlawfully occupied between exchange of contracts and completion, then the sale shall be completed on that basis and the Buyer shall not be entitled to refuse to complete or delay completion as a result of such occupation and shall not be entitled to any compensation from the Seller. Further, no allowance shall be made in respect of such unlawful occupation.
8. There may be furniture, fittings or effects remaining in the Property in which case the Buyer shall not be entitled to require the removal of such items or delay completion on the grounds that the existence of such items does not constitute vacant possession.
9. The Buyer must instruct a solicitor firm that is regulated by the Solicitors Regulation Authority (“SRA”). The Seller will not accept funds unless they are transferred by a firm that is regulated by the SRA due to money laundering regulations.
10. Completion shall take place on 4 March 2025 (“the Completion Date”). The Seller may delay completion for up to four weeks without any claim of compensation from the Buyer and the Buyer is prevented from serving a notice to complete (“Notice”) during this period and the Conditions are varied accordingly.
11. The Buyer will be deemed to have established and to have satisfied itself in all respects as to the past and present permitted use of the Property and each and every part thereof and all other relevant information on planning and related matters and shall be deemed to purchase with full knowledge thereof and shall raise no objection or requisition with regard thereto. The Seller will not provide any insurance indemnity policies in relation to any issues relating to the Property.

12. If Japanese Knotweed is present at the Property, the Buyer may not delay completion over this, and no claim can be made against the Seller.
13. The Seller gives no warranty as to the use, area, description or identity of the Property and shall not be required to define exact boundaries of the same and if any error, misstatement or omission is discovered the same shall not annul the sale nor shall any compensation be allowed in respect thereof.
14. With effect from exchange of contracts, the Property is at the Buyer's risk and the Seller is under no obligation to the Buyer to insure the Property. No damage to or destruction of the Property nor any deterioration in its condition, however caused, will entitle the Buyer either to any reduction of the purchase price or to refuse to complete or to delay completion.
15. Office copy entries of the above-mentioned title and of the filed plan have been made available for inspection to the Buyer or their solicitor before the date of the auction. The Buyer shall purchase the Property with full knowledge and notice of the contents of such documents and shall not raise any enquiry, requisition or objection in respect of any matter contained or referred to in any such documents or in respect of the fact that the official copies are not in the name of the Seller and clause G4.2 of the Conditions does not apply.
16. If the Seller is not the registered proprietor of the Seller's title on or prior to the date of completion, then the Buyer will:
  - i. accept that title shall be deduced by the Seller producing copy register entries showing the current registered proprietor, or an epitome of title, together with a scanned certified copy of either the transfer which evidences the transfer from the current registered proprietor to the Seller or the contract for purchasing the Property between the current registered proprietor and the Seller; and
  - ii. the Buyer hereby undertakes to the Seller:
    - not to insist upon the Seller being the registered proprietor of the Property prior to completion; and
    - to accept the validity of any Notice served by the Seller upon the Buyer if the Buyer fails to complete on the agreed completion date notwithstanding that the Seller is not the registered proprietor of the Property.
17. On completion, in addition to the purchase price, the Buyer will pay a buyer's premium of 2.75% of the purchase price or £4,950, whichever is the highest. No invoice will be provided by the Seller in relation to this additional payment.
18. In the transfer deed ("Transfer") of the Property, the Buyer shall enter into a covenant with the Seller that the Buyer and all persons deriving title under it will at all times perform and observe the covenants, restrictions, conditions and stipulations binding upon the Seller and contained or referred to in the above mentioned title number and will henceforth keep the Seller indemnified against all liabilities, expenses, costs (including any solicitors' or other professional costs and expenses calculated on a full indemnity basis), actions, claims, proceedings, demands, damages and losses arising in respect of any future breach thereof.
19. The amount paid on completion shall be a final figure and the Buyer shall be responsible for the payment of all monies due in respect of any rent, rent charge, service charge, service or insurance premium contribution or any similar outgoings, including any excess charge notwithstanding when the same arose or became payable prior to completion.

20. No apportionment in respect of any leasehold charges is to be made unless the Seller instructs such apportionment.
21. The Seller will not be responsible for any missing keys/access codes on completion and the Buyer cannot delay completion or make any claim for costs against the Seller.
22. The Buyer will be responsible for all payments in relation to any unilateral notices or entries noted on the title and will not require the Seller to make payments to discharge the same. The Buyer may not delay completion and will complete notwithstanding any unilateral notices noted against the title register.
23. If the Property is tenanted, the Buyer must rely on its own investigations in respect of the tenancy and any documentation relating thereto and the Buyer shall be responsible for the service of any notice upon the tenant. The Seller is not obliged to provide any documentation in relation to any tenancy. No rent or deposit apportionment will be arranged.
24. The Buyer will be responsible for refunding the rent deposits for any tenancies which may exist whether or not the deposit has been paid into a Tenancy Deposit Scheme.
25. In the event that the Seller is required to enter into a licence to assign or obtain any written consent prior to the sale of the lot contained within any lease, transfer, conveyance or similar document contained or referred to within the title number the responsibility of complying with any such requirements shall be assumed by the Buyer upon exchange of contracts and the Buyer will raise no requisition thereon nor shall the Buyer be entitled to delay completion as a result thereof. The buyer will also reimburse the Seller of all costs due to any management company in connection with providing any certificate of compliance, including (but not limited to) costs for entering into a licence to assign.
26. If the Property is leasehold:
  - i. the Buyer must rely on its own investigations in relation to any service charge and restrictions that must be complied with. No LPE information will be supplied;
  - ii. the Buyer is responsible for all charges associated with the lease including but not limited to the service charge, ground rent, licence fees, notice fees and all other costs associated. If any of these fell due before exchange of contracts/completion, the Buyer will be responsible for clearing any outstanding sums to ensure they are cleared. The Buyer will have no claim against the Seller for failing to clear these before completion and cannot delay completion because of any outstanding sums in relation to the lease;
  - ii. the Buyer is not entitled to delay completion due to lack of leasehold information and it is for the Buyer to carry out its investigations prior to bidding; and
  - iii. if a licence to assign is required, the Buyer shall be responsible for obtaining this and the Buyer shall be solely liable for all legal and other fees relating to the same.

27. If the Property is leasehold and there is an absent landlord, the Buyer may not delay completion due to the absent landlord and no claim can be made against the Seller regarding this.
28. The Buyer will be responsible for any ground rent and service charge for the Property which remain in arrears and unpaid at completion and which relates to any period leading up to or post completion. The relevant standard conditions of sale shall be amended accordingly. It is the Buyer's responsibility to make contact with any Management Company/Landlord to ensure that they can comply with any lease or restrictions noted on title.
29. The Buyer shall not be entitled to require the Seller to provide evidence of any payment of ground rent or service charge or any other form of estate management/maintenance charge at completion. The relevant standard conditions of sale shall be amended accordingly.
30. The Buyer will reimburse the Seller of any rent, service charge or any other payment in relation to the Property that has been paid in advance.
31. The rate of interest shall be 6% per annum above Barclays Bank Plc base rate from time to time but with a maximum of 12%.

- 3.1 Freedom from incumbrances
- 3.1.2 The incumbrances subject to which the property is sold are:
- (a) those specified in the contract
- (b) those discoverable by inspection of the property before the date of the contract.
- (c) those the seller does not and could not reasonably know about
- (d) those, other than mortgages, which the buyer knows about
- (e) entries made before the date of the contract in any public register except those maintained by the Land Registry or its Land Charges Department or by Companies House
- (f) public requirements.
- 3.1.3 After the contract is made, the seller is to give the buyer written details without delay of any new public requirement and of anything in writing which he learns about concerning a matter covered by condition 3.1.2.
- 3.1.4 The buyer is to bear the cost of complying with any outstanding public requirement and is to indemnify the seller against any liability resulting from a public requirement.
- 3.2 Physical state
- 3.2.1 The buyer accepts the property in the physical state it is in at the date of the contract unless the seller is building or converting it.
- 3.2.2 A leasehold property is sold subject to any subsisting breach of a condition or tenant's obligation relating to the physical state of the property which renders the lease liable to forfeiture.
- 3.2.3 A sub-lease is granted subject to any subsisting breach of a condition or tenant's obligation relating to the physical state of the property which renders the seller's own lease liable to forfeiture.
- 3.3 Leases affecting the property
- 3.3.1 The following provisions apply if any part of the property is sold subject to a lease.
- (a) The seller having provided the buyer with full details of each lease or copies of the documents embodying the lease terms, the buyer is treated as entering into the contract knowing and fully accepting those terms.
- (b) The seller is to inform the buyer without delay if the lease ends or if the seller learns of any application by the tenant in connection with the lease; the seller is then to act as the buyer reasonably directs, and the buyer is to indemnify him against all consequent loss and expense.
- (c) Except with the buyer's consent, the seller is not to agree to any proposal to change the lease terms nor to take any step to end the lease.
- (d) The seller is to inform the buyer without delay of any change to the lease terms which may be proposed or agreed.
- (e) The buyer is to indemnify the seller against all claims arising from the lease after actual completion; this includes claims which are unenforceable against a buyer for want of registration.
- (f) The seller takes no responsibility for what rent is lawfully recoverable, nor for whether or how any legislation affects the lease.
- (g) If the let land is not wholly within the property, the seller may apportion the rent.
- 4. TITLE AND TRANSFER
- 4.1 Proof of title
- 4.1.1 Without cost to the buyer, the seller is to provide the buyer with proof of the title to the property and of his ability to transfer it, or to procure its transfer.
- 4.1.2 Where the property has a registered title the proof is to include official copies of the items referred to in rules 134(1)(a) and (b) and 135(1)(a) of the Land Registration Rules 2003, so far as they are not to be discharged or overridden at or before completion.
- 4.1.3 Where the property has an unregistered title, the proof is to include:
- (a) an abstract of title or an epitome of title with photocopies of the documents, and
- (b) production of every document or an abstract, epitome or copy of it with an original marking by a conveyancer either against the original or an examined abstract or an examined copy.
- 4.2 Requisitions
- 4.2.1 The buyer may not raise requisitions:
- (a) on any title shown by the seller before the contract was made
- (b) in relation to the matters covered by condition 3.1.2.
- 4.2.2 Notwithstanding condition 4.2.1, the buyer may, within six working days of a matter coming to his attention after the contract was made, raise written requisitions on that matter. In that event, steps 3 and 4 in condition 4.3.1 apply.
- 4.2.3 On the expiry of the relevant time limit under condition 4.2.2 or condition 4.3.1, the buyer loses his right to raise requisitions or to make observations.
- 4.3 Timetable
- 4.3.1 Subject to condition 4.2 and to the extent that the seller did not take the steps described in condition 4.1.1 before the contract was made, the following are the steps for deducing and investigating the title to the property to be taken within the following time limits:
- | Step   | Time Limit  |
|--|---|
| 1. The seller is to comply with condition 4.1.1                    | Immediately after making the contract   |
| 2. The buyer may raise written requisitions                        | Six working days after either the date of the contract or the date of delivery of the seller's evidence of title on which the requisitions are raised, whichever is the later |
| 3. The seller is to reply in writing to any raised requisitions    | Four working days after receiving the requisitions  |
| 4. The buyer may make written observations on the seller's replies | Three working days after receiving the replies  |
- The time limit on the buyer's right to raise requisitions applies even where the seller supplies incomplete evidence of his title, but the buyer may, within six working days from delivery of any further evidence, raise further requisitions resulting from that evidence.
- 4.3.2 The parties are to take the following steps to prepare and agree the transfer of the property within the following time limits:
- | Step  | Time Limit   |
|---|--|
| A. The buyer is to send the seller a draft transfer   | At least twelve working days before completion date    |
| B. The seller is to approve or revise that draft and either return it or retain it for use as the actual transfer | Four working days after delivery of the draft transfer |
| C. If the draft is returned the buyer is to send an engrossment to the seller                                     | At least five working days before completion date      |
- 4.3.3 Periods of time under conditions 4.3.1 and 4.3.2 may run concurrently
- 4.3.4 If the period between the date of the contract and completion date is less than 15 working days, the time limits in conditions 4.2.2, 4.3.1 and 4.3.2 are to be reduced by the same proportion as that period bears to the period of 15 working days. Fractions of a working day are to be rounded down except that the time limit to perform any step is not to be less than one working day.
- 4.4 Defining the property
- The seller need not:
- (a) prove the exact boundaries of the property
- (b) prove who owns fences, ditches, hedges or walls
- (c) separately identify parts of the property with different titles further than he may be able to do from information in his possession.
- 4.5 Rents and rentcharges
- The fact that a rent or rentcharge, whether payable or receivable by the owner of the property, has been, or will on completion be, informally apportioned is not to be regarded as a defect in title.
- 4.6 Transfer
- 4.6.1 The buyer does not prejudice his right to raise requisitions, or to require replies to any raised, by taking any steps in relation to preparing or agreeing the transfer.
- 4.6.2 Subject to condition 4.6.3, the seller is to transfer the property with full title guarantee.

- 4.6.3 The transfer is to have effect as if the disposition is expressly made subject to all matters covered by condition 3.1.2 and, if the property is leasehold, is to contain a statement that the covenants set out in section 4 of the Law of Property (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1994 will not extend to any breach of the tenant's covenants in the lease relating to the physical state of the property.
- 4.6.4 If after completion the seller will remain bound by any obligation affecting the property which was disclosed to the buyer before the contract was made, but the law does not imply any covenant by the buyer to indemnify the seller against liability for future breaches of it:
- (a) the buyer is to covenant in the transfer to indemnify the seller against liability for any future breach of the obligation and to perform it from then on, and
- (b) if required by the seller, the buyer is to execute and deliver to the seller on completion a duplicate transfer prepared by the buyer.
- 4.6.5 The seller is to arrange at his expense that, in relation to every document of title which the buyer does not receive on completion, the buyer is to have the benefit of:
- (a) a written acknowledgement of his right to its production, and
- (b) a written undertaking for its safe custody (except while it is held by a mortgagee or by someone in a fiduciary capacity).
- 4.7 Membership of company
Where the seller is, or is required to be, a member of a company that has an interest in the property or has management responsibilities for the property or the surrounding areas, the seller is, without cost to the buyer, to provide such documents on completion as will enable the buyer to become a member of that company.
5. RISK, INSURANCE AND OCCUPATION PENDING COMPLETION
- 5.1.1 The property is at the risk of the buyer from the date of the contract
- 5.1.2 The seller is under no obligation to the buyer to insure the property unless:
- (a) the contract provides that a policy effected by or for the seller and insuring the property or any part of it against liability for loss or damage is to continue in force, or
- (b) the property or any part of it is let on terms under which the seller (whether as landlord or as tenant) is obliged to insure against loss or damage.
- 5.1.3 If the seller is obliged to insure the property under condition 5.1.2, the seller is to:
- (a) do everything necessary to maintain the policy
- (b) permit the buyer to inspect the policy or evidence of its terms
- (c) if before completion the property suffers loss or damage:
- (i) pay to the buyer on completion the amount of the policy monies which the seller has received, so far as not applied in repairing or reinstating the property, and
- (ii) if no final payment has then been received, assign to the buyer, at the buyer's expense, all rights to claim under the policy in such form as the buyer reasonably requires and pending execution of the assignment hold any policy monies received in trust for the buyer
- (d) cancel the policy on completion.
- 5.1.4 Where the property is leasehold and the property, or any building containing it, is insured by a reversioner or other third party, the seller is to use reasonable efforts to ensure that the insurance is maintained until completion and if, before completion, the property or building suffers loss or damage the seller is to assign to the buyer on completion, at the buyer's expense, such rights as the seller may have in the policy monies, in such form as the buyer reasonably requires.
- 5.1.5 If payment under a policy effected by or for the buyer is reduced, because the property is covered against loss or damage by an insurance policy effected by or on behalf of the seller, then, unless the seller is obliged to insure the property under condition 5.1.2, the purchase price is to be abated by the amount of that reduction.
- 5.1.6 Section 47 of the Law of Property Act 1925 does not apply.
- 5.2 Occupation by buyer
- 5.2.1 If the buyer is not already lawfully in the property, and the seller agrees to let him into occupation, the buyer occupies on the following terms.
- 5.2.2 The buyer is a licensee and not a tenant. The terms of the licence are that the buyer:
- (a) cannot transfer it
- (b) may permit members of his household to occupy the property
- (c) is to pay or indemnify the seller against all outgoings and other expenses in respect of the property
- (d) is to pay the seller a fee calculated at the contract rate on a sum equal to the purchase price (less any deposit paid) for the period of the licence
- (e) is entitled to any rents and profits from any part of the property which he does not occupy
- (f) is to keep the property in as good a state of repair as it was in when he went into occupation (except for fair wear and tear) and is not to alter it
- (g) if the property is leasehold, is not to do anything which puts the seller in breach of his obligations in the lease, and
- (h) is to quit the property when the licence ends.
- 5.2.3 The buyer is not in occupation for the purposes of this condition if he merely exercises rights of access given solely to do work agreed by the seller.
- 5.2.4 The buyer's licence ends on the earliest of: completion date, rescission of the contract or when five working days' notice given by one party to the other takes effect.
- 5.2.5 If the buyer is in occupation of the property after his licence has come to an end and the contract is subsequently completed he is to pay the seller compensation for his continued occupation calculated at the same rate as the fee mentioned in condition 5.2.2(d).
- 5.2.6 The buyer's right to raise requisitions is unaffected.
6. COMPLETION
- 6.1 Date
- 6.1.1 Completion date is twenty working days after the date of the contract but time is not of the essence of the contract unless a notice to complete has been served.
- 6.1.2 If the money due on completion is received after 2.00pm, completion is to be treated, for the purposes only of conditions 6.3 and 7.2, as taking place on the next working day as a result of the buyer's default.
- 6.1.3 Condition 6.1.2 does not apply and the seller is treated as in default if:
- (a) the sale is with vacant possession of the property or any part of it, and
- (b) the buyer is ready, able and willing to complete but does not pay the money due on completion until after 2.00pm because the seller has not vacated the property or that part by that time.
- 6.2 Arrangements and place
- 6.2.1 The buyer's conveyancer and the seller's conveyancer are to co-operate in agreeing arrangements for completing the contract.
- 6.2.2 Completion is to take place in England and Wales, either at the seller's conveyancer's office or at some other place which the seller reasonably specifies.
- 6.3 Apportionments
- 6.3.1 On evidence of proper payment being made, income and outgoings of the property are to be apportioned between the parties so far as the change of ownership on completion will affect entitlement to receive or liability to pay them.
- 6.3.2 If the whole property is sold with vacant possession or the seller exercises his option in condition 7.2.4, apportionment is to be made with effect from the date of actual completion; otherwise, it is to be made from completion date.
- 6.3.3 In apportioning any sum, it is to be assumed that the seller owns the property until the end of the day from which apportionment is made and that the sum accrues from day to day at the rate at which it is payable on that day.
- 6.3.4 For the purpose of apportioning income and outgoings, it is to be assumed that they accrue at an equal daily rate throughout the year.
- 6.3.5 When a sum to be apportioned is not known or easily ascertainable at completion, a provisional apportionment is to be made according to the best estimate available. As soon as the amount is known, a final apportionment is to be made and notified to the other party. Any resulting balance is to be paid no more than ten working days later, and if not then paid the balance is to bear interest at the contract rate from then until payment.
- 6.3.6 Compensation payable under condition 5.2.5 is not to be apportioned.
- 6.4 Amount payable
The amount payable by the buyer on completion is the purchase price and the contents price (less any deposit already paid to the seller or his agent) adjusted to take account of:
- (a) apportionments made under condition 6.3
- (b) any compensation to be paid or allowed under condition 7.2
- (c) any sum payable under condition 5.1.3.
- 6.5 Title deeds
- 6.5.1 As soon as the buyer has complied with all his obligations under this contract on completion the seller must hand over the documents of title.
- 6.5.2 Condition 6.5.1 does not apply to any documents of title relating to land being retained by the seller after completion.
- 6.6 Rent receipts
The buyer is to assume that whoever gave any receipt for a payment of rent or service charge which the seller produces was the person or the agent of the person then entitled to that rent or service charge.
- 6.7 Means of payment
The buyer is to pay the money due on completion by a direct transfer of cleared funds from an account held in the name of a conveyancer at a clearing bank and, if appropriate, an unconditional release of a deposit held by a stakeholder.
- 6.8 Notice to complete
- 6.8.1 At any time after the time applicable under condition 6.1.2 on completion date, a party who is ready, able and willing to complete may give the other a notice to complete.
- 6.8.2 The parties are to complete the contract within ten working days of giving a notice to complete, excluding the day on which the notice is given. For this purpose, time is of the essence of the contract.
- 6.8.3 On receipt of a notice to complete:
- (a) if the buyer paid no deposit, he is forthwith to pay a deposit of 10 per cent
- (b) if the buyer paid a deposit of less than 10 per cent, he is forthwith to pay a further deposit equal to the balance of that 10 per cent.
7. REMEDIES
- 7.1 Errors and omissions
- 7.1.1 If any plan or statement in the contract, or in the negotiations leading to it, is or was misleading or inaccurate due to an error or omission by the seller, the remedies available to the buyer are as follows.
- (a) When there is a material difference between the description or value of the property, or of any of the contents included in the contract, as represented and as it is, the buyer is entitled to damages.
- (b) An error or omission only entitles the buyer to rescind the contract:
- (i) where it results from fraud or recklessness, or
- (ii) where he would be obliged, to his prejudice, to accept property differing substantially (in quantity, quality or tenure) from what the error or omission had led him to expect.
- 7.1.2 If either party rescinds the contract:
- (a) unless the rescission is a result of the buyer's breach of contract the deposit is to be repaid to the buyer with accrued interest
- (b) the buyer is to return any documents he received from the seller and is to cancel any registration of the contract.
- 7.2 Late completion
- 7.2.1 If there is default by either or both of the parties in performing their obligations under the contract and completion is delayed, the party whose total period of default is the greater is to pay compensation to the other party.
- 7.2.2 Compensation is calculated at the contract rate on an amount equal to the purchase price, less (where the buyer is the paying party) any deposit paid, for the period by which the paying party's default exceeds that of the receiving party, or, if shorter, the period between completion date and actual completion.
- 7.2.3 Any claim for loss resulting from delayed completion is to be reduced by any compensation paid under this contract.
- 7.2.4 Where the buyer holds the property as tenant of the seller and completion is delayed, the seller may give notice to the buyer, before the date of actual completion, that he intends to take the net income from the property until completion. If he does so, he cannot claim compensation under condition 7.2.1 as well.
- 7.3 After completion
Completion does not cancel liability to perform any outstanding obligation under this contract.
- 7.4 Buyer's failure to comply with notice to complete
- 7.4.1 If the buyer fails to complete in accordance with a notice to complete, the following terms apply.
- 7.4.2 The seller may rescind the contract, and if he does so:
- (a) he may:
- (i) forfeit and keep any deposit and accrued interest
- (ii) resell the property and any contents included in the contract
- (iii) claim damages
- (b) the buyer is to return any documents he received from the seller and is to cancel any registration of the contract.
- 7.4.3 The seller retains his other rights and remedies.
- 7.5 Seller's failure to comply with notice to complete
- 7.5.1 If the seller fails to complete in accordance with a notice to complete, the following terms apply.
- 7.5.2 The buyer may rescind the contract, and if he does so:
- (a) the deposit is to be repaid to the buyer with accrued interest
- (b) the buyer is to return any documents he received from the seller and is, at the seller's expense, to cancel any registration of the contract.
- 7.5.3 The buyer retains his other rights and remedies.
8. LEASEHOLD PROPERTY
- 8.1 Existing leases
- 8.1.1 The following provisions apply to a sale of leasehold land.
- 8.1.2 The seller having provided the buyer with copies of the documents embodying the lease terms, the buyer is treated as entering into the contract knowing and fully accepting those terms.
- 8.2 New leases
