- 19 The Purchaser shall take the Property as he finds it and shall accept that, if the Property is sold with vacant possession, that vacant possession is given of the whole or any part offered with vacant possession notwithstanding that there may be furniture, fittings or effects remaining therein and shall not be entitled to require the removal of any such furniture, fittings or effects or object to taking the same on the ground that the existence thereof does not constitute vacant possession as such.
- 20 The obligations of the Vendor and the Purchaser shall remain in full force and effect so far as they remain to be observed and performed on completion and notwithstanding completion, such obligation shall not be extinguished or deemed to have merged in such transfer.
- 21 The Vendor shall not be required to reconcile differences between the description of any Lot and the Property sold or furnish evidence of any change in the numbering of any property, and shall not, be bound to show any title to boundary, division walls or fences or the ownership thereof.
- 22 The fact that the Property is a house or part of a house which may not legally be used for immediate residential occupation shall not annul the sale or entitle the Purchaser to rescind the sale or claim damages or diminution in price.
- 23 No representation is made that the rent payable in respect of any Property or any part thereof is the rent properly chargeable under any Acts of Parliament or Statutory Instruments or Regulations, regulating or controlling the same. The only representation made or intended to be implied by or from the Particulars of Sale is that the rents referred to therein are the rents actually being paid by the tenants to the landlord and no objection or requisition shall be taken or made as to any matter arising under such Acts, Instruments or Regulations as aforesaid. The Purchaser shall not be entitled to raise any requisition or objection as to any rent limits or net rents or fair rents or the present or former regulated rents payable in respect of the Property nor to the inability of the Vendor to produce copies of Statutory Notices of Increase and Notices to Quit (if any) which may have been served. In the case of a regulated tenancy under the Rent Acts, no objection shall be made on the ground that the rent referred to is not the fair rent or that it may exceed the rent registered under the Rent Acts or that the rent has not been registered. No objection shall be taken by a Purchaser as to whether or not a Notice of Increase of Rent has or has not been validly served or as to whether or not a Certificate of Disrepair has been obtained by the tenant authorising a reduction of rent, nor shall the Purchaser object to the existence or terms of any counter-notice served upon or by a tenant.
- 24 In the case of a property let, no representation is made as to whether or not there is any sub-tenant, except where expressly stated in the Particulars of Sale.
- 25 If, at the date of completion, there shall be due to the Vendor any sums in respect of rent, insurance premiums or other sums due from the tenants, such sums shall be paid in full to the Vendor by the Purchaser and the Vendor will, if required by the Purchaser (at the Purchaser's cost) assign to him the benefit of such sum or sums.
- 26 The Vendor shall not be required to convey the whole or part of the Property to any person other than the Purchaser and shall not be required to execute a conveyance other than that of the whole of the Property or at a price different from that stated on the Contract.
- 27 The Vendor makes no representation as to the ownership of electric wiring and fittings and gas fittings and installations or central heating installations which may be on hire or hire purchase from the supply companies. In such case, the Vendor accepts no liability for any payments that may be outstanding in respect thereof and the Property is sold subject thereto.
- 28 The Property is sold in all respects in its actual state and condition on the date of the Memorandum of Sale, whether or not the Purchaser has inspected it on or at any time or times before that date.
- 29 The Purchaser shall be deemed to purchase with full knowledge of the ownership of any fixtures, fittings, property and goods within the Property and the Vendor shall be under no liability to the Purchaser in respect thereof, notwithstanding the same may be the property of some third person.
- 30 In the case of any dispute as to any bid or the sale of any property to more than one purchaser, or any dispute as to the applicable sale conditions or their interpretation the Auctioneer may, in his absolute discretion, forthwith determine the dispute and/or put up the property for auction again and/or withdraw the Property and/or rescind any Contract. In the event of any such dispute, the Auctioneer's decision shall be final.
- 31 Any guide, whether contained in this Catalogue or in any Sales Brochure, Particulars of Sale, Conditions of Sale or other similar document indicating a price at which or a range of prices between which the Property may be expected to attract offers, is a statement of opinion only and is only given without responsibility.
- 32 In the event that the Purchaser being a limited company it is agreed that this Contract is being entered into at the request of the person ("the Guarantor") whose bid the Auctioneer shall have accepted. - (a) That the Purchaser will observe and perform all of its obligations under this Contract in accordance with the Auctioneer's General Conditions of Sale as varied by the Special Conditions and will pay and make good to the Vendor all losses, costs, damages and expenses occasioned to the Vendor by the non-performance of all the terms and conditions of the Contract or any of them including (but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) the non-payment of the deposit or the whole or any part of the purchase price or any other monies which may become due on completion and it is agreed that any neglect or forbearance on the part of the Vendor in enforcing or giving time to the Purchaser for the performance of the terms and conditions under this Contract or any of them shall not in any way release the Guarantor in respect of his liability under this Condition.
- (b) That if the Purchaser shall enter into liquidation and the Liquidator shall disclaim this Contract the Guarantor shall if the Vendor within 28 days after such disclaimer so requires by giving 14 days' notice in writing to the Guarantor, accept on assurance of the Property hereby agreed to be sold. In the event of the Vendor serving such a notice the completion date of which time shall be of the essence shall be on or before the expiration of such notice and the Auctioneer's General Conditions of Sale (as varied by the Standard Conditions of Sale) shall apply and the Guarantor shall pay to the Vendor such sum or sums as the Purchaser would have been liable to pay (including interest) had the Liquidator not disclaimed this Contract including (but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) the amount of the deposit payable on the signing of the Memorandum of Sale (if such deposit has not previously been paid) and the whole of any part of the purchase price or any other monies which may become due on completion.

| 2. The buyer may raise written requisitions                        | Six working days after either the date of the contract or the date of delivery of the seller's evidence of title on which the requisitions are raised, whichever is the later |
| 3. The seller is to reply in writing to any raised requisitions    | Four working days after receiving the requisitions                                                                                                                            |

- The time limit on the buyer's right to raise requisitions applies even where the seller supplies incomplete evidence of his title, but the buyer may, within six working days from delivery of any further evidence, raise further requisitions resulting from that evidence.
- 4.3.2 The parties are to take the following steps to prepare and agree the transfer of the property within the following time limits:
- | Step                                                                                                              | Time Limit                                             |

- 4.3.3 Periods of time under conditions 4.3.1 and 4.3.2 may run concurrently
- 4.3.4 If the period between the date of the contract and completion date is less than 15 working days, the time limits in conditions 4.2.2, 4.3.1 and 4.3.2 are to be reduced by the same proportion as that period bears to the period of 15 working days. - 4.6 Transfer
- 4.6.1 The buyer does not prejudice his right to raise requisitions, or to require replies to any raised, by taking any steps in relation to preparing or agreeing the transfer.
- 4.6.2 Subject to condition 4.6.3, the seller is to transfer the property with full title guarantee.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SALE (FIFTH EDITION - 2018 REVISION)
(NATIONAL CONDITIONS OF SALE 25TH EDITION, LAW SOCIETY'S CONDITIONS OF SALE 2011)

- 4.6.3 The transfer is to have effect as if the disposition is expressly made subject to all matters covered by condition 3.1.2 and, if the property is leasehold, is to contain a statement that the covenants set out in section 4 of the Law of Property (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1994 will not extend to any breach of the tenant's covenants in the lease relating to the physical state of the property.
- 4.6.4 If after completion the seller will remain bound by any obligation affecting the property which was disclosed to the buyer before the contract was made, but the law does not imply any covenant by the buyer to indemnify the seller against liability for future breaches of it:
- (a) the buyer is to covenant in the transfer to indemnify the seller against liability for any future breach of the obligation and to perform it from then on, and
- (b) if required by the seller, the buyer is to execute and deliver to the seller on completion a duplicate transfer prepared by the buyer.
- 4.6.5 The seller is to arrange at his expense that, in relation to every document of title which the buyer does not receive on completion, the buyer is to have the benefit of:
- (a) a written acknowledgement of his right to its production, and
- (b) a written undertaking for its safe custody (except while it is held by a mortgagee or by someone in a fiduciary capacity).
- 4.7 Membership of company
Where the seller is, or is required to be, a member of a company that has an interest in the property or has management responsibilities for the property or the surrounding areas, the seller is, without cost to the buyer, to provide such documents on completion as will enable the buyer to become a member of that company.
5. RISK, INSURANCE AND OCCUPATION PENDING COMPLETION
- 5.1.1 The property is at the risk of the buyer from the date of the contract
- 5.1.2 The seller is under no obligation to the buyer to insure the property unless:

- (b) permit the buyer to inspect the policy or evidence of its terms
- (c) if before completion the property suffers loss or damage:
- (i) pay to the buyer on completion the amount of the policy monies which the seller has received, so far as not applied in repairing or reinstating the property, and
- (ii) if no final payment has then been received, assign to the buyer, at the buyer's expense, all rights to claim under the policy in such form as the buyer reasonably requires and pending execution of the assignment hold any policy monies received in trust for the buyer
- (d) cancel the policy on completion.
- 5.1.4 Where the property is leasehold and the property, or any building containing it, is insured by a reversioner or other third party, the seller is to use reasonable efforts to ensure that the insurance is maintained until completion and if, before completion, the property or building suffers loss or damage the seller is to assign to the buyer on completion, at the buyer's expense, such rights as the seller may have in the policy monies, in such form as the buyer reasonably requires.
- 5.1.5 If payment under a policy effected by or for the buyer is reduced, because the property is covered against loss or damage by an insurance policy effected by or on behalf of the seller, then, unless the seller is obliged to insure the property under condition 5.1.2, the purchase price is to be abated by the amount of that reduction.
- 5.1.6 Section 47 of the Law of Property Act 1925 does not apply.
- 5.2 Occupation by buyer
- 5.2.1 If the buyer is not already lawfully in the property, and the seller agrees to let him into occupation, the buyer occupies on the following terms.

- (c) is to pay or indemnify the seller against all outgoings and other expenses in respect of the property
- (d) is to pay the seller a fee calculated at the contract rate on a sum equal to the purchase price (less any deposit paid) for the period of the licence
- (e) is entitled to any rents and profits from any part of the property which he does not occupy
- (f) is to keep the property in as good a state of repair as it was in when he went into occupation (except for fair wear and tear) and is not to alter it
- (g) if the property is leasehold, is not to do anything which puts the seller in breach of his obligations in the lease, and
- (h) is to quit the property when the licence ends.
- 5.2.3 The buyer is not in occupation for the purposes of this condition if he merely exercises rights of access given solely to do work agreed by the seller.
- 5.2.4 The buyer's licence ends on the earliest of: completion date, rescission of the contract or when five working days' notice given by one party to the other takes effect.
- 5.2.5 If the buyer is in occupation of the property after his licence has come to an end and the contract is subsequently completed he is to pay the seller compensation for his continued occupation calculated at the same rate as the fee mentioned in condition 5.2.2(d).
- 5.2.6 The buyer's right to raise requisitions is unaffected.
6. COMPLETION
- 6.1 Date
- 6.1.1 Completion date is twenty working days after the date of the contract but time is not of the essence of the contract unless a notice to complete has been served.
- 6.1.2 If the money due on completion is received after 2.00pm, completion is to be treated, for the purposes only of conditions 6.3 and 7.2, as taking place on the next working day as a result of the buyer's default.
- 6.1.3 Condition 6.1.2 does not apply and the seller is treated as in default if:
- (a) the sale is with vacant possession of the property or any part of it, and
- (b) the buyer is ready, able and willing to complete but does not pay the money due on completion until after 2.00pm because the seller has not vacated the property or that part by that time.
- 6.2 Arrangements and place
- 6.2.1 The buyer's conveyancer and the seller's conveyancer are to co-operate in agreeing arrangements for completing the contract.
- 6.2.2 Completion is to take place in England and Wales, either at the seller's conveyancer's office or at some other place which the seller reasonably specifies.
- 6.3 Apportionments
- 6.3.1 On evidence of proper payment being made, income and outgoings of the property are to be apportioned between the parties so far as the change of ownership on completion will affect entitlement to receive or liability to pay them.
- 6.3.2 If the whole property is sold with vacant possession or the seller exercises his option in condition 7.2.4, apportionment is to be made with effect from the date of actual completion; otherwise, it is to be made from completion date.
- 6.3.3 In apportioning any sum, it is to be assumed that the seller owns the property until the end of the day from which apportionment is made and that the sum accrues from day to day at the rate at which it is payable on that day.
- 6.3.4 For the purpose of apportioning income and outgoings, it is to be assumed that they accrue at an equal daily rate throughout the year.
- 6.3.5 When a sum to be apportioned is not known or easily ascertainable at completion, a provisional apportionment is to be made according to the best estimate available. As soon as the amount is known, a final apportionment is to be made and notified to the other party. Any resulting balance is to be paid no more than ten working days later, and if not then paid the balance is to bear interest at the contract rate from then until payment.
- 6.3.6 Compensation payable under condition 5.2.5 is not to be apportioned.
- 6.4 Amount payable
The amount payable by the buyer on completion is the purchase price and the contents price (less any deposit already paid to the seller or his agent) adjusted to take account of:
- (a) apportionments made under condition 6.3
- (b) any compensation to be paid or allowed under condition 7.2
- (c) any sum payable under condition 5.1.3.
- 6.5 Title deeds
- 6.5.1 As soon as the buyer has complied with all his obligations under this contract on completion the seller must hand over the documents of title.
- 6.5.2 Condition 6.5.1 does not apply to any documents of title relating to land being retained by the seller after completion.
- 6.6 Rent receipts
The buyer is to assume that whoever gave any receipt for a payment of rent or service charge which the seller produces was the person or the agent of the person then entitled to that rent or service charge.
- 6.7 Means of payment
The buyer is to pay the money due on completion by a direct transfer of cleared funds from an account held in the name of a conveyancer at a clearing bank and, if appropriate, an unconditional release of a deposit held by a stakeholder.
- 6.8 Notice to complete
- 6.8.1 At any time after the time applicable under condition 6.1.2 on completion date, a party who is ready, able and willing to complete may give the other a notice to complete.
- 6.8.2 The parties are to complete the contract within ten working days of giving a notice to complete, excluding the day on which the notice is given. For this purpose, time is of the essence of the contract.
- 6.8.3 On receipt of a notice to complete:
- (a) if the buyer paid no deposit, he is forthwith to pay a deposit of 10 per cent
- (b) if the buyer paid a deposit of less than 10 per cent, he is forthwith to pay a further deposit equal to the balance of that 10 per cent.
7. REMEDIES
- 7.1 Errors and omissions
- 7.1.1 If any plan or statement in the contract, or in the negotiations leading to it, is or was misleading or inaccurate due to an error or omission by the seller, the remedies available to the buyer are as follows.
- (a) When there is a material difference between the description or value of the property, or of any of the contents included in the contract, as represented and as it is, the buyer is entitled to damages.
- (b) An error or omission only entitles the buyer to rescind the contract:
- (i) where it results from fraud or recklessness, or
- (ii) where he would be obliged, to his prejudice, to accept property differing substantially (in quantity, quality or tenure) from what the error or omission had led him to expect.
- 7.1.2 If either party rescinds the contract:
- (a) unless the rescission is a result of the buyer's breach of contract the deposit is to be repaid to the buyer with accrued interest
- (b) the buyer is to return any documents he received from the seller and is to cancel any registration of the contract.
- 7.2 Late completion
- 7.2.1 If there is default by either or both of the parties in performing their obligations under the contract and completion is delayed, the party whose total period of default is the greater is to pay compensation to the other party.
- 7.2.2 Compensation is calculated at the contract rate on an amount equal to the purchase price, less (where the buyer is the paying party) any deposit paid, for the period by which the paying party's default exceeds that of the receiving party, or, if shorter, the period between completion date and actual completion.
- 7.2.3 Any claim for loss resulting from delayed completion is to be reduced by any compensation paid under this contract.
- 7.2.4 Where the buyer holds the property as tenant of the seller and completion is delayed, the seller may give notice to the buyer, before the date of actual completion, that he intends to take the net income from the property until completion. If he does so, he cannot claim compensation under condition 7.2.1 as well.
- 7.3 After completion
Completion does not cancel liability to perform any outstanding obligation under this contract.
- 7.4 Buyer's failure to comply with notice to complete
- 7.4.1 If the buyer fails to complete in accordance with a notice to complete, the following terms apply.
- 7.4.2 The seller may rescind the contract, and if he does so:
- (a) he may:
- (i) forfeit and keep any deposit and accrued interest
- (ii) resell the property and any contents included in the contract
- (iii) claim damages
- (b) the buyer is to return any documents he received from the seller and is to cancel any registration of the contract.
- 7.4.3 The seller retains his other rights and remedies.
- 7.5 Seller's failure to comply with notice to complete
- 7.5.1 If the seller fails to complete in accordance with a notice to complete, the following terms apply.
- 7.5.2 The buyer may rescind the contract, and if he does so:
- (a) the deposit is to be repaid to the buyer with accrued interest
- (b) the buyer is to return any documents he received from the seller and is, at the seller's expense, to cancel any registration of the contract.
- 7.5.3 The buyer retains his other rights and remedies.
8. LEASEHOLD PROPERTY
- 8.1 Existing leases
- 8.1.1 The following provisions apply to a sale of leasehold land.
- 8.1.2 The seller having provided the buyer with copies of the documents embodying the lease terms, the buyer is treated as entering into the contract knowing and fully accepting those terms.
- 8.2 New leases
- 8.2.1 The following provisions apply to a contract to grant a new lease.
- 8.2.2 The conditions apply so that:
- 'seller' means the proposed landlord
- 'buyer' means the proposed tenant
- 'purchase price' means the premium to be paid on the grant of a lease.
- 8.2.3 The lease is to be in the form of the draft attached to the contract.
- 8.2.4 If the term of the new lease will exceed seven years, the seller is to deduce a title which will enable the buyer to register the lease at the Land Registry with an absolute title.
- 8.2.5 The seller is to engrave the lease and a counterpart of it and is to send the counterpart to the buyer at least five working days before completion date.
- 8.2.6 The buyer is to execute the counterpart and deliver it to the seller on completion.
- 8.3 Consent
- 8.3.1 (a) The following provisions apply if a consent to let, assign or sub-let is required to complete the contract
- (b) In this condition 'consent' means consent in the form which satisfies the requirement to obtain it.
- 8.3.2 (a) The seller is to apply for the consent at his expense, and to use all reasonable efforts to obtain it
- (b) The buyer is to provide all information and references reasonably required.
- 8.3.3 Unless he is in breach of his obligation under condition 8.3.2, either party may rescind the contract by notice to the other party if three working days before completion date (or before a later date on which the parties have agreed to complete the contract):
- (a) the consent has not been given, or
- (b) the consent has been given subject to a condition to which a party reasonably objects. In that case, neither party is to be treated as in breach of contract and condition 7.1.2 applies.
9. CONTENTS
- 9.1 The following provisions apply to any contents which are included in the contract, whether or not a separate price is to be paid for them.
- 9.2 The contract takes effect as a contract for sale of goods.
- 9.3 The buyer takes the contents in the physical state they are in at the date of the contract.
- 9.4 Ownership of the contents passes to the buyer on actual completion.
